3.2 Discussion
Based on the table, there are three types of figurative language in Rihanna’s song are presented, namely:

1. Hyperbole in Diamonds → You’re shooting star I see (7)
   This lyric shows simile by the use of word like to compare the love that she wants like a hot pie. Pie which is still hot would be delicious to eat it, the same as love that singer wants to say, it should make someone feeling happy. The song tells that the singer wants the love like hot pie which is delicious so the love that she wants, it has to beautiful and nice.

2. Metaphor in Diamonds → A vision of ecstasy (8)
   It shows metaphor because the word vision is compared as ecstasy. As we know ecstasy is one kind of drugs which gives an effect like fly to the users. Therefore, ecstasy is the same as vision which could give someone fly and free as they have a vision in their life.

3. Simile in Only Girl in the World → I want you to love me like I’m hot pie (5)
   The lyric shows hyperbole in the words shooting star. In general, of course we cannot see someone shooting a star. Star is too big to shot by someone. Star in the sky is beautiful object which can be seen on the night. Star is also signs of the good fortune. So, the song tells about a girl sees her boyfriend has good fortune.

On the other hand, Katy Perry song has six types of figurative language that found, namely:

1. Hyperbole in Roar → I got the eye of the tiger, (14)
   It can be seen there is exaggerated lyric used. It is impossible for human could get the eye of the tiger. When we want to approach the tiger, probably our eyes are taken by it. However, I got the eye of the tiger it could be meant that someone has fighter eyes (feel brave and confidence) who is strong enough to fightback that she has been through. The song tells that the girl could be very brave as a tiger if she gets her confidence in herself.
2. Paradox in Roar → I went from zero to my own hero (9)
This lyrics shows the use of paradox in the words zero and hero. The words zero and hero is declared a comparison which is contrast but link to each other. The word zero means empty, nothing or no one; however, hero is a person who has nobility, strength and exceptional courage. The song tells about a girl who was being nothing in the past and afraid to face the problem and turned to be a girl who has strength and courage to overcome all the pain that she has been through.

3. Personification in Roar → Like thunder gonna shake the ground (10)
It shows personification form in word thunder which shaketheground. There is characteristic of human that is shake as human ability instead given to an object thunder. It means that thunder is strong object which could represent a strong girl, nevertheless, shake the ground represent a girl could face a problem. So, the song wants to show that a girl is strong like thunder which shakes the ground could not afraid to face her problem.

4. Metaphor in E.T. → You’re so hypnotizing (1)
The lyric hypnotizing is seen as metaphor because that word compares, a boy which can hypnotize a girl. The literal meaning of the hypnotizing is a psychology studies which can influence the suggestion on human mind. So, the girl considers that boy can make her feel affected.

5. Irony in E.T. → Boy, you’re so alien (22)
It shows the use of irony because a girl says that is an alien, in other word, alien is identical with thing which comes from the other world or planet. So, it could be concluded that song tells about a man who meets with her is very different from others.

6. Simile in E.T. → Feels like I’m floating (5)
The word likeshow simile and that word compare the girl feeling which is floating. Float is feeling like fly, flowery and happy. So, the song tells that a girl feels happy when she is close with a boy. She also feels like can forget anything.
